Dear Mr. Bennet:

A constituent of mine [redacted] recently wrote me asking that the enclosed letter be hand delivered to [redacted] who is at the People's Temple outpost at Jonestown, in the South American jungle of Guyana. This woman is extremely concerned for [redacted] welfare, and fears that none of her previous letters have reached him.

I am aware of the circumstances surrounding the People's Temple situation, but I would appreciate it if you would see that the letter is sent to officials at the American Embassy in Guyana, and take every step to insure that Brian personally receives the document, and reads it in private.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Pete McCloskey
